

AUV Acoustic Communication

Technical project report

Overview

Chirp-FSK acoustic communication concept for an Antarctic under-ice AUV positioning and data system.

Technical approach

Signal generation, filtering, detection, synchronization and packet framing are designed around a constrained underwater channel.

Outcome

A communication chain structured for robust experimentation and DSP analysis.